

Apprentice Opportunities

Is a Debt free Higher Level Engineering Apprenticeship for you?
Maths/Science A Levels or BTEC Equivalent?

Explore our electrical engineering apprenticeship opportunities for dynamic individuals

If you are about to finish your A levels or BTEC Level 3 qualifications, and are keen to pursue a career in Engineering, take a look at the opportunities Capula offer on our website – www.capula.co.uk.

As an independent systems integrator, Capula is a market leader in providing advanced control and automation systems to Industry for over 40 years.

Based locally in Stone, Capula offer Higher Level Apprenticeships, depending on your qualifications and skills that lead to Degree level qualifications whilst also providing comprehensive on the job training. We will help you to become a professional engineer, working alongside our fantastic workforce whilst earning a living!

Apprentice Opportunities

What we offer:

We pay a competitive salary

We invest in your training and development

We will help and guide you to achieve nationally recognised qualifications, HND & BEng, CEng

We support and encourage you to become a professional engineer

We provide the environment and finance for you to gain professional accreditation and membership with the Institution of Engineering and Technology

We offer childcare vouchers

In addition we offer competitive holiday entitlement, private BUPA healthcare and more

So if you are studying Maths and Sciences at A level and you think you have what it takes to study for a foundation degree and then a BSC or BEng get in touch and we can arrange for you to visit.

